

“Effective immediately, all newly filed or previously filed ex parte residential (RCW 59.18) and mobile home (RCW 59.20) unlawful detainer (RCW 59.12) matters pertaining to orders to show cause and motions for default, shall be directed to the unlawful detainer department (“UD Department”), presently designated as Dept. 2, or such other department as may be covering as backup during such times as the designated UD Department is not otherwise available. The UD Department and/or covering department may direct parties and counsel regarding, inter alia, designated days and times for ex parte requests, standards for sufficiency of supporting documentation, timing, and sufficiency for delivering bench copies of pleadings in advance of show cause dockets, and limits on the size of the Thursday and Friday P.M. unlawful detainer dockets.

All non-residential unlawful detainer show cause matters shall be directed to the assigned judicial officer.”
